FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Date: April 16, 2013

Contacts: Mark Volland, Marketing Communications Specialist
410-535-4583 Email: vollanrm@co.cal.md.us
Carrie Lovejoy, Public Information Specialist
410-535-4583 Email: lovejocb@co.cal.md.us

Calvert County Visitor Information Centers Now Open Seven Days a Week

PRINCE FREDERICK, Md. – April 16, 2013 – Now that the weather is warming, visitors will begin streaming back to Calvert County for vacations, day trips and family activities. To help tourists and motorists with travel plans, directions and general information, Calvert County's two visitor information centers, located in Owings and Solomons, are now open seven days a week from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The Owings center is co-located with the Fairview Library at 8120 Southern Maryland Boulevard; in Solomons, the center is located at 14175 Solomons Island Road South. Knowledgeable staff are available at each site to provide information about local attractions, hotels, restaurants and other travel information.

Both centers are overseen by the Department of Economic Development and managed under contract by the Calvert County Chamber of Commerce; summer hours are in effect through Oct. 31, 2013.

For more information about the Calvert County, Md., Department of Economic Development, our visitor sites and attractions and the services available to assist county businesses, call 410-535-4583, 800-331-9771 or 301-855-1880; send an email to info@ecalvert.com, or visit online at www.ecalvert.com.

###

Calvert County is Maryland's smallest county in land area with 213 square miles. It is home to nearly 90,000 people and has one of the highest standards of living in Maryland. Major industries include defense contracting, information technology, tourism, energy, advanced manufacturing and administrative services. Like us on Facebook by searching for Calvert County Government, Calvert County, Maryland.